

POWERED BY SUBNATION

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH  SHACKNEWS

Known as the E3 ESPORTS ZONE, this 10,000 sq. ft area in the West Hall (Booth# 4122) will be an epicenter of gaming content and community competitions for three full days, featuring a Content Stage that is being programmed by Subnation and Shacknews, plus an Esports Stage that will host community-centric exhibition matches with influencers and professional gamers. Both stage activities will be livestreamed via Twitch and at live.e3expo.com.

The E3 ESPORTS ZONE will include two stages with programming that will be focused on spotlighting the cross over between the gaming culture and art, music, and fashion. Content will include exciting developer interviews, celebrity and influencer appearances, progressive brand experiences, professional gamers, musicians, artists, tutorials, pro-am tournaments, and other cultural experiences throughout the show.
